

Membership Information 2014

Who may join

Membership is open to doctors working in or with an interest in the specialty of Emergency Medicine.

Since 2011 membership is open to Medical Students at a nominal fee. As a goodwill gesture, the Association decided at its recent AGM to allow free Medical Student membership for the 2014 subscription year. To avail of this, students should download the Affiliate Membership Form and return the fully completed form including the Direct Debit mandate to the Association's Honorary Secretary as instructed below. The DD mandate will not be activated for 2013. The Association is always keen to see doctors at an early stage of their Emergency Medicine careers join the Association.

Categories of Membership

Categories of membership are defined in the IAEM Constitution and are as follows:

Full Membership is available to a doctor who holds a substantive post as a Consultant in Emergency Medicine or Paediatric Emergency Medicine in either a public or private hospital in Ireland or is listed on the Medical Council (Ireland) Specialist Register in the division of Emergency Medicine or Paediatric Emergency Medicine.

Associate Membership is available to a Non-Consultant Hospital Doctor, such as an Associate Specialist; Associated Emergency Physician; Staff Grade; Specialist Registrar; Registrar; Senior House Officer; Intern or equivalent, working in or having an interest in Emergency Medicine.

Affiliate Membership is available to Medical Students with an interest in Emergency Medicine

Since January 2011 Associate Membership of IAEM has included automatic membership of the Irish Emergency Medicine Trainees Association (IEMTA) which previously cost €50 per annum.
